and enclose check for same.

Your prices for ink are high at least I have been trying to get much cheaper elsewhere. For this reason my allocations are smaller than they otherwise would have been.

Kindly quote me price on smaller envelopes such as you use but without your printed cord in lots of 500 each.

By turning to you copy of lots sent me you will notice that you lost two lots # 38, Only one was sent me and I think the second lot listed as # 38 and # 41 are the same.

Gentlemen - Your second assignment forms are at hand. I have not as yet had time to go over them.

Under date of Dec 17th you offered a copy of "Notes on Jersey Cents" for $6.50. I will give you $4.00 for the copy if in fine condition, this is all I will pay for a copy of this work. If you will accept it you may send it or otherwise I will wait and run my chances to pick up a copy elsewhere.

I wrote you asking prices on the three small size envelopes, Index, you use, without your card printed on. Kindly advise me at what price you can furnish them or where I can obtain them direct.

Will be proud to receive your catalogue for auction sales which I am informed you send from time to time

Enclosed you have check for and filled catalogue your last sale which kindly send me.

Lots were satisfactory except #1067 which had I seen I would not have purchased. It is a very poor specimen of the crow. If in fact it is the over date, with my glass I am unable to determine it.

Sir - I received the account book note you offer has given book if so I have it and also the same note with interest 10<sup>5</sup> from and book.

The only note in my collection is a 10<sup>5</sup> Herkimer note, ~~which I~~ <sup>which I</sup> purchased from you a year or two ago at $15.00 <sup>and</sup> which I am ashamed of.

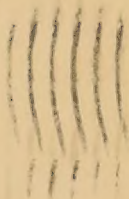

Age has given the seal <sup>time</sup> which has tended to ruin the seal, to discolor. I was in doubt when I took the note that it was a fake, but relying from you, relied on your judgment on my part.

Yours truly
